FOREWORD

IT'S BEEN FUN. WE WISH TO THANK THE MANY PEOPLE WHO MADE THIS ANNUAL POSSIBLE. IT WILL BE A LONG TIME BEFORE WE ENJOY ANYTHING AS MUCH AS WE'VE ENJOYED WORKING FOR THE ALMANAC.

WE CHOSE THE GOLDEN GATE INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION AS A THEME FOR THE BOOK BECAUSE THE EXPOSITION IS BOTH HISTORICAL AND PROPHETIC. THE PURPOSE OF THE EXPOSITION PARALLELS OUR EFFORTS SINCE THEY ARE BOTH HISTORICAL AND PROPHETIC. WE HAVE ASSEMBLED AND ILLUSTRATED THE HISTORIES OF NEARLY SIX HUNDRED FRANKLIN STUDENTS DURING THEIR HAPPY YEARS AT HIGH SCHOOL. WE HOPE WE HAVE PRESENTED ADEQUATE MATERIAL FOR GLIMPSES INTO THEIR FUTURES.

DEDICATION

HIS LOYALTY TO THE SENIOR B'S WAS NOT LESSENER BY THEIR PROMOTION TO SENIOR A STANDING. INSTEAD, HE ADVANCED WITH THEM. HIS WARMING PERSONALITY WON A LANDSLIDE OF POPULARITY AS ONE OF THE FRIENDLIEST, MOST DILIGENT ADVISORS OF THE CLASS OF SUMMER '39.

THEREFORE, WITH SINCERE ADMIRATION, WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK TO

PACIFICA

First Prize Poem

Where California's northern shore
Juts out to form a golden door,
A strange new isle has reared its crest,
And on this isle an image stands—
A woman with up-raised hands—
The spirit of the many lands
And many creeds and cultures of the West

And men from many varied climes,
Of varied tongues and varied times,
All mill and mix about her feet;
And eyes that know the weight of years,
And eyes that harbor blighting fears,
And eyes that laugh to hide the tears
Find hope renewed in hers whose calm all greet

There's benediction in her mien
Beneath the grandeur of the queen,
A sense of unperturbed peace;
And those who look upon her face
Find there that time has paused to trace
The mingled hopes and dreams of race
In confraternity that cannot cease

She is the matriarch that stands
With welcome in her lifted hands
For those—her children of the West,
And those of other shores who wait
To enter, through her shining gate,
The wonders of her broad estate—
The throne of peace and haven of the blest.

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANTS

The personnel, curricular, library and secretarial problems of Franklin are efficiently and capably handled by the administrative assistants.

Curricular and guidance problems are taken care of by the personnel office. Under the direction of Mr. John R. Hoist, our very genial counselor, Franklin students are beginning to understand the real possibilities of their school. The assistants in this fine work are Mrs. Bartlett, Miss Greene, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. La Pierre, Mrs. Warner, and Mrs. Small, that very efficient secretary who has charge of all student records.

Attendance of Franklinites is the big problem of Mr. Carey K. Berger and his assistant Mrs. Bennett. Mr. Berger is also the faculty member in charge of the C. C. B. Court.

Miss Mallory and Mrs. Corbett together make our library the attractive place for study that it has become.

The immense task of secretary of the school falls to Mrs. Warr, formerly Mrs. Zinn.

Her colleagues in this work are Miss Youngquist in the main office, and Miss Thorsvig in the book room.

M I R A C L E

Is this the same slim moon the Greeks adored?
That hung bright crescent-wise on Dian's brow?
Has such frail craft braved centuries of storm?
Shed wonder on old Egypt then,—as now?
Through some pale amber cloud did Milton glimpse
This fairy scimitar that Keats espied?
And did some wanton love-wench Shakespeare vex
That he the moon's inconstancy decried.

The hand of Time has flicked the years away,
But still the moon through pallid clouds and sky,
All unconcerned with minstrel's ecstasy,
Drifts by in loveliness. And here am I,
Exultant in a fellowship, at last,
With beauty-maddened poets of the past.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

Democracy is the precept on which America is founded. Likewise Franklin itself is a democracy, is self-sustaining, a school which is completely student governed.

Once every semester the student body elects its guiding lights for the ensuing six months. The luminaries who will control the destinies for one semester are chosen in that balloting. The elected students are intrusted with the task of managing the entire school. The motivation comes solely from the student body officers themselves.

Efficient, intelligent, and unassuming have been the officers for the past year. As one with the student body, they have endeavored to improve the existing conditions here in school. Moreover, school spirit which is the life blood of any institution, was immeasurably improved during their administration.

THE GOLDEN GATE

Second Prize Poem

I once stood on the bluff
Above the Golden Gate,
The sky was clear, the sea was roaring
And of a deep blue green,
There came to me a vision,
Though it was not, yet it was morning

The Golden Gate shone bright,
Below in the morning sun
And as I looked across the bay
I saw a rugged forest
From mountains to the sea—
My vision did not longer stay.

Another vision came
Out of the glowing past,
And as I stood and looked around
A ship was on the sea
Beyond the Golden Gate;
Her rig was strange, ungainly, sound

The ship came in the bay,
On deck stood Don Ayala,
And then the gallant crew jumped down
Upon the golden sand
And shouted in their glory;
Their work was done, the bay was found

The evening sun shone copper
Upon the golden bay,
This time a mighty city stood
With towers to the sky;
Then purple shadows came,
The dusk of night fell like a hood

Then suddenly a ribbon was made of shining steel
And placed across the azure bay
The longest, highest bridge
The world has ever seen—
A mighty feat for us today.

Beside it there by magic
Appeared a mystery isle,
Where pirates came and buried treasure
For all of us to find—
A large, grand, treasure island
Which was created for our pleasure

And when the visions went,
I found myself still there;
And as I stood beneath the pine
I knew why I had come—
There was to be a fair—
The one of nineteen thirty-nine

R. O. T. C. STAFF

The R.O.T.C. Staff consists of all student officers in the unit. These officers are in charge of all technical matters.

Staff duties include the officiating at all flag raising ceremonies and the organization of instructions from the down-town headquarters of the unit.

This staff guided the unit to major accomplishments. It is notable that there were no seniors in the staff, and for that reason, Captain Ed Spangler acted as Cadet Major during the spring semester.

SABRE AND CHEVRONS

The Sabre and Chevrons Club is exclusively an organization for the leaders of the R.O.T.C. The members of this organization have distinguished themselves in the R.O.T.C. activities and in service to the school.

The Club supervises all social activities and strives to promote fellowship throughout the unit.

Lieutenant Thompson, former Instructor of Military Science at Franklin, sponsored the Club during the Fall Semester. Colonel Ide, a new addition to Franklin's faculty, took over the duties of sponsor in the Spring Semester.

COMPANY A

Captain Jay Murphy commanded Company A during the past term as well as serving as commander of the First Platoon. Lieutenant Gordon Coutts served as commander of the Second Platoon.

Under the leadership of these boys, this company has upheld its standards and continued as one of the crack units of the city.

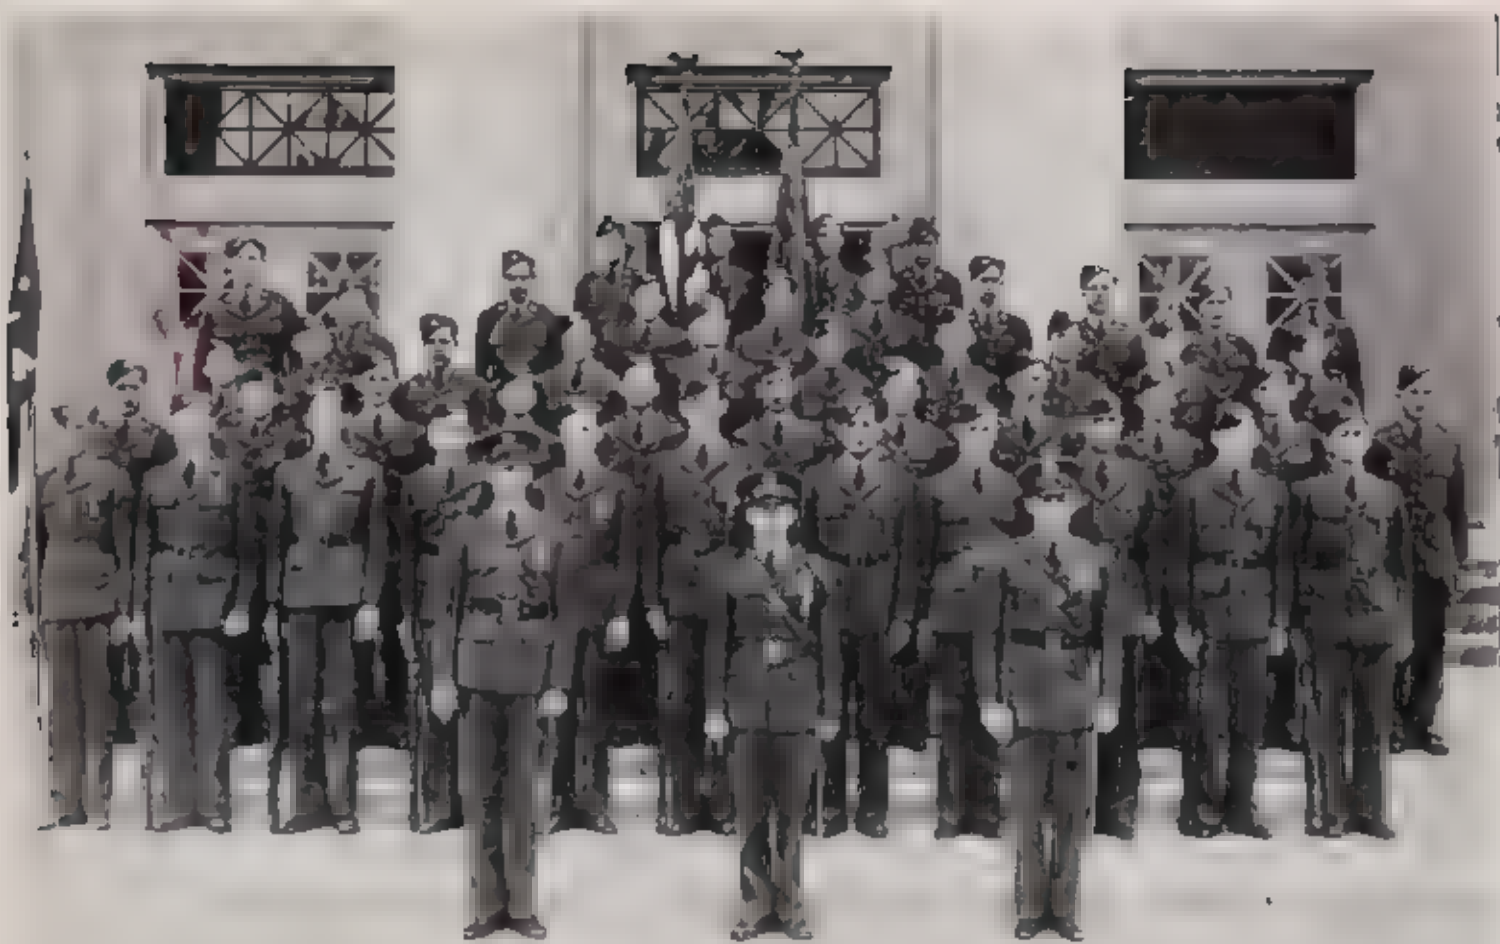

This company was made up of newly selected men combined with old members of the organization. This system encourages leadership and makes for rapid learning on the part of the newer members of the troop.

COMPANY B

Captain Norman Goeckel served as commander of Company B during the past semester. Lieutenant Ledford Rawlinson held the position of Platoon commander.

In any ceremony, the colors are always presented to this company, which marches directly behind the color guard in any drill or parade.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Almanac Staff wishes to extend its sincere gratitude to the unsung heroes who did so much unheralded behind-the-scenes work in the production of this book.

MR J EDMUND WATSON and his brother JIM were towers of strength during the tiring period of photographing. Many thanks to them. Their reward awaits them in heaven.

The printers, Mr JOHN B JACKSON and MR JOHN MORLEY, representatives of the Carl A Bundy Quill & Press, were invaluable while offering their ingenious assistance in the make-up of the book. Their gentility and patience are deeply appreciated.

MR WALDO EDMUNDS, the engraver representing the Mission Engravers, is thanked for his patience during the period when the book was so heavily completed and the loose ends were being tied together. His cooperation and suggestions were indeed helpful.

Gratitude is extended to Mrs Virginia Church, one of California's outstanding literary figures, and one of Franklin's grandest people, for her selection, "Miracle", on page fourteen. Mrs Church's sweet encouragement helped the editors through the darker moments.

Last, but by no means least, appreciation is extended to Panther Ed Spangler, who so graciously came to the aid of the Art editors in their hour of need. Ed proved to be ace trouble-shooter, and his services, unselfishly rendered without demand for recognition, are recognized by the staff as veritable life-savers.

IN APPRECIATION

The Franklin High School will this year sustain a great loss. Our beloved Chief Custodian, Mr. Harry S. Crandall, will close his labors in our behalf, and will retire in October.

May Mr. Crandall's career has been a calm one. Born in Marengo, Illinois, in 1864, Mr. Crandall later resided in Rockford, and for many years engaged there in farming and in business. He came to the Benjamin Franklin High School as custodian in 1921 and has been here ever since, with the exception of one year spent as custodian at the Aldama School. He has never lost a day of service here for illness or for any other reason.

Respectfully
Mr. Crandall's own family consists of four sons and three daughters all living in Southern California and all useful citizens. His wife passed away two years ago.

Mr. Crandall maintains his home at 5608 Irvington Place, and it is still a center for his children and his children's children.

After retirement Mr. Crandall plans a vacation with a relative at Lake Managua in Wisconsin and will then continue to make his home there.

Mr. Crandall's genial spirit, his real desire to serve, and his abounding common sense have all endeared him to successive generations of Franklin students and teachers and he will leave in the hearts of all of us a place that is difficult or impossible to fill.

STUDENT COUNCIL

A most essential cog in the Franklin machine is the Student Council. It is the governing body of the school, and is composed of twelve members. Of this dozen, four are elected by the Student Body, six are ex-officio members, and two are appointed by the Council.

The Student Council supervises all Student Body affairs under the direction of Principal Robert J. Teall and Student Body Manager Herbert Phoenix.

BOYS' LEAGUE

A closely knit corps of fellows banded together to promote the furtherance of friendships between the boys in Franklin is an accurate description of the Boys' League.

The organization, of which every boy in Franklin is a bona fide member, was inaugurated with the idea that a group consisting of the entire masculine element of Franklin striving to foster amicable and constructive ideals and activities, would be of immeasurable and invaluable benefit to the school.

The League moguls for the last two semesters have succeeded admirably in the attainment of this goal.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

The prime object of the Girls' League at Franklin is to create friendliness among the girls and to present entertaining, worthwhile programs. The Girls League is divided into three sections—the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior sections—which meet individually, to enable the younger as well as older girls to hold offices and become leaders in the school.

GIRLS' COUNCIL

Recognizing the need for a girls' organization to advise and counsel the girls of Franklin, the Girls' Council was formed. Coupled with the Associators, they are the Law and Order Guilds of Franklin.

The star of the Girls' Council has gradually ascended into an enviable place of prominence. The presidency of this group has become one of the most sought after and imposing posts in school.

In conjunction with the Associators, the Council sponsors the popular student body dance in the summer semester.

Primarily and basically a service organization, the Council also invites and attends several parties a semester with certain of the boys' clubs.

The officers for the past two semesters have further advanced the Girls' Council into a position of indispensable value in school life.

ALMANAC

Each year brings a new Almanac and a new staff, and this year has brought the customary Almanac with a staff which has found great pleasure in discharging the duties of essaying improvement of Franklin's annual.

The editor-in-chief of the 1939 volume was Jim Craddock, who lent his ideas and energies in directing the make up of the pages and doing much of the writing in the book. Jim's suggestions gave the Almanac many improvements, and it is largely through his tireless efforts that this edition has come to pass.

Florence Anderson and Gloria Casalino handled all of the art work in the annual. They assembled and mounted all of the senior and club pictures for the engraver. The theme, "The Golden Gate International Exposition," was one of the many ideas which came from their helpful ingenuity.

Betty Burton, assistant editor of the book, proved to be indispensable in the literary department of the product. Betty, aided by the associate editor Marjorie Gerrard, wrote literally reams for the Almanac. The entire Club Division is the fruit of the labors of these two girls.

The other associate editor was Jim Greene, whose work is probably recognized easily throughout the book because of his inimitable literary style. Jim was the handy man of the year, doing the little odd jobs along with his regular assignments.

The poetry contest and many of the major assignments fell to Betty Jane Kears. Betty directed the selection of the poetry in the volume, and devoted much time to the finer writing involved in putting out a yearbook.

The entirety of the R.O.T.C. Division was handled by Donald Cochran. Don expended much effort in assembling the material essential to the preparation of his large assignment.

Leo Silverstein, dynamic and inexorable, discharged his duties as Sports editor to the satisfaction of all concerned. Having played at tackle on the prize-winning eleven of '38, Leo was able to give authentic "inside stuff" concerning the activities of the said pigskin aggregate.

Leo was assisted in writing his Sports Division by Frank Nordyke and Louis Windham. Since there was much writing to be done in the Sports department, these boys were called upon to do a great deal.

Kiyoshi Takano, Glen Andersen, and Vernon Jorgensen were the capable assistants to the art co-editors. Glen did excellent work in mounting the pictures of the winter seniors. Kiyoshi was pertinent to the cause in cutting the wood blocks which adorn the division pages. Vernon Jorgensen did the cartoons and designed a few of the division pages.

Sponsor of the literary department of the Almanac was Mrs. Alice LaPierre. Mrs. LaPierre was in charge of directing the work of the several writers for the book. She generously took the post this year when Mrs. Cranon, who was originally appointed sponsor, found that she would be unable to continue as advisor due to an extra class assigned to her in the fifth week. Mrs. LaPierre did a grand job as pinch hitter and trouble shooter, and the members of the staff quaver to think upon what the book might have been without her invaluable succour in times of trouble.

As usual, Mrs. Jessie Roberts lent her priceless experience as director of the art work and watch dog of the budget. "Valiant" is the word for Mrs. Roberts, and further comment upon her value to the Almanac would be ambiguous.

Mrs. Virginia Church, not only one of Franklin's literary luminaries but also a Western writer of renown, aided the contributing poets in the writing of their pieces. Appreciation is apropos here, and the Staff wishes to extend sincere and loving appreciation to Mrs. Church for her contribution and her cooperation.

Mr. Herbert Phoenix handled the financial details for the annual, and he, like all the other sponsors, was a most-important cog in the Almanac machine.

The staff and sponsors of this book feel that all the effort put forth in the formation of it was entirely worth more than they probably realize, and each member of the staff has expressed himself as wishing that he might do it all over again."

THE FRANKLIN PRESS

More streamlined and modernized than ever before, the Franklin Press takes its place once again among the prize-winning high school papers of the nation. The co-operation of the staff and the printers with the editors helped the Press to win many honors.

The "All American" rating won by the Press in the annual contest sponsored by the National Scholastic Press Association was the source of much pride for the staff. Only two other Pacific Coast papers won a similar award.

The winning of the Los Angeles Times' Newspaper contest, and subsequently the receiving of their beautiful trophy, elated the staff as no other award could. The staff pointed with justifiable pride to the fact that the Press won over thirty-eight other senior high school papers in the metropolitan area. This was the third major award earned by the S'39 staff.

Olive Brochiero and Glenn Pifari, co-editors-in-chief, during the winter semester inaugurated an efficient and co-operative regime. The eighteen issues of the Press which they edited were submitted in the contest.

Editing the back page requires ability and make-up technique, and Katherine Meyers showed by putting out an "All-American" back page that she had that technique. She was assisted by Jim Greene and Lynn Patterson.

Leo Silverstein turned out a colorful and interesting sports section. Sports writers helping him included Jim Craddock, Jim Greene, and Marvin Schultz. Jean Warren gave her journalistic touch to the feature page, aided by Babbie Bogue and Betty Burton.

The remainder of the fall semester staff included Paulette Dombrower, news editor, Lois Sutton, club editor, Edith Turner and Margie Timpe, girls' sports.

Heading the Press staff for the spring semester was Leo Silverstein. Under his guidance many new streamlined effects were achieved. His good-natured managing radiated to the rest of the staff. Very valuable in writing and editing was Miriam Cargile, assistant editor.

Betty Jane Kears introduced a new, more professional-looking feature page with the assistance of Betty Joe Axt. The glamour of sports was caught by Jim Greene, sports editor, who was helped by Frank Nordyke, Louis Windham, who contributed the popular "Dope" column, and Wallace Mitchell, who wrote the prophetic "Spectator" column. Stan Stringer planned and made up a well-balanced back page with the help of Donald Cochran.

Other members of the staff included Helen Boone, club editor, Shirley Hunter, news editor, Kiyoshi Takano and Vernon Jorgensen, cartoonists, Franklin Rhue, advertising manager, and Betty Burton, whose excellent and voluminous writing was a credit to the paper.

At all times it was the advice, co-operation, and aid of the print shop staff which made it possible to publish the Press. Sponsored and led by Mr. Ewart G. Johnston, the staffs included Bob Johnstone, Richard Luetke, Stan Stringer, Leonard Orr, Joe Torres, Shelby Kinser, George Blatchley, and Norman Kaltenback.

Mrs. Kate Cranon, journalism advisor, sponsors the "All American" Press. Through her efforts it was possible to present a weekly issue to the Franklin public.

FORENSICS

Forensic history was made at Franklin during the 1938-1939 year under the skilled guidance of Mr. Richard Nida in the fall, and under Mr. Armin C. Hentschke during the spring semester.

Although Franklin temporarily dropped from the Southern California Debate League, Clifford Wynne, debate manager, and Duane Beaman, his assistant, engineered many inter-class debates. No debate manager was selected for the spring term.

Franklin was represented at the Third Annual Southern California High School Debate Tournament held at U.S.C. on December 9 and 10 by Tom Mahoney and Eugene Roddenberry, who entered the Oratory and Extemporaneous divisions of the contest.

In the Franklin Oratorical Contest, sponsored by the Junto Club, Richard Lesh captured the Upper Division Contest Cup with his stirring oration entitled, "Gentlemen, We Thank You." Billie Reese and Jimmy Vernon tied for lower division honors and received parchments.

The Twelfth Annual World Friendship Oratorical Symposium was concluded on April 21. In the district eliminations, Billie Reese won third place for Franklin, while only one point separated her from top-ranking speakers.

Barbara Thorne, Evelyn Apel, Barbara Barr, Jim Greene, Lucille Jensen, Jack Leidholt, Lynn Patterson, John Tapia, and Theora Fly presented a symposium before the Parent Teachers Association on March 15. "The Problem of Leisure for Moderns," the topic of the symposium, was enthusiastically received by the parents and teachers.

A panel to discuss the advantages of home ownership was presented to the Highland Park Realty Board on June 6. Jim Greene presided as chairman with Jack Leidholt, Richard Lesh, Theora Fly, Evelyn Apel, and Tessie Davis acting as members of the panel.

Active debaters for the year included Ruth Lewis, Tom Mahoney, Marion Scheid, Sidney Simmons, Edith Lynch, Barbara Draper, Jim Craddock, Eugene Roddenberry, Richard Lesh, and Joe Glantz.

Into the annals of history go the forensic records of the 1938-39 year, but the power of speech and the magic attraction of words created by public speaking goes on.

DRAMATICS

Opportunities to view the art of Thespis have been bountiful, locally speaking, for the past two terms. Mrs. Offill and Mr. Miller have coupled in most instances to direct and produce these productions, and they received capable and essential assistance from the stage and sound crews.

The initial adventure into the art of the drama was the Senior Class Day Play, "Artists and Models," written by Mrs. Offill. George Pimentel and Josephine Wilkinson were starred in this comic fantasy of life in Greenwich Village. The entire dialogue was in rhyme and the play was a gay, laughable production punctuated by colorful costumes, beautiful music and fine acting.

Mr. Rex Miller took charge of the annual Tin Can Hi-Jinx. This production is presented annually and the proceeds are used to fill the Christmas baskets of the needy of the surrounding community. The play was "Ghost Castle," an eerie, haunted vehicle of ghosts and spectres. Clifford Wynne, Nadyne Crumpacker, Antonio Vasquez, Mary Alice Riley, Wayne Haney, and Ray Millet were the featured actors, and spooks, singing and dancing entertained the audience.

The Christmas play this year was "The Silence of God" by William Sloane III, a particularly significant production with timely appeal. It foreshadowed the world consequential Munich Conference. Claude Millsap, Ray Millet, Dan Muntingh, Wayne Haney, Albert Barrat, and Sam Gallagher presented this stirring drama on December 15-16.

The long awaited Faculty Frolic was this year a tremendous, overwhelming success, written by Rex Miller and produced by Mrs. Offill. It was a characterization of the famed newspaper funny characters. Mr. Miller and Miss Wolf were the featured players, but about half the faculty participated to give the local students their most hilarious, laughable afternoon of the year. Coach Duke as Tarzan, Mr. Axe as Flash Gordon, Mr. Hoist as Uncle Elby and Mr. Teall and the Brothers Gilbert as the Mountain Boys were the stand-outs in this outstanding production.

The class of S'39 presented "Captain Applejack" as its Senior Play. Mrs. Offill directed this swashbuckling, adventure story. Mary Alice Riley gave an interpretation of Anna, a spy, in this production that displayed a versatility amazing in one so young. Wayne Haney portrayed Ambrose, a pirate chief. Catherine Tondro played Poppy and supplied the love interest. Jack Blum was the inevitable villain. This three act melodrama was an ambitious undertaking and the dramatic students gratified Mrs. Offill's faith in them in attempting as big a production as this by making "Captain Applejack" one of the most successfully "colossal, studendous" vehicles of recent years.

STAGE AND SOUND CREW

In every sense of the literal meaning of the words, the sound and stage crews are the 'unsung heroes of Franklin the men behind the masks.' Every Aud must have lighting, speaking, and stage facilities. Plays and other similar productions entail even longer and more tedious preparation by the duo of crews.

Speakers and the luminaries on the stage for the sundry auds presented each semester, receive approbation and appreciation for their labors. Much of the routine and arduous preparation for these presentations is handled by the two crews. And so it is our place to here thank them. Mr. Holdredge was the sponsor of the sound crew for both semesters. Mr. Miller and Mr. Elliot each handled the stage group for one semester.

CLASSROOM TREASURERS

Coupled with sundry other groups, the classroom treasurers are truly among the service martyrs of Franklin. They relieve the teachers of routine details, such as selling tickets to auds and sporting events, selling subscriptions to the Press and Almanac, and similar bothersome essentials.

In the various classes the treasurers are appointed by the teacher in charge, are elected by the class, or this task is rotated during the semester among several students to eliminate the possibility of the burden resting on one student's shoulders for the entire semester.

Mr. Herbert Phoenix has been the sponsor of this group for the past two semesters.

LIBRARIANS

It is the library staff which faithfully serves the student body day by day and helps it with the treasure of information to be found in the Franklin 10,000-volume library. They prepare books for use, check books in and out, record fines, but above all they help students to use the library to best advantage. Through their work they also gain valuable experience for later study and learn a valuable profession. Franklin's librarians all enjoy the course and certainly the student body benefits by their work.

USHERS AND HALL GUARDS

Two active school groups that do much of their work unlauded and unnoticed, are the Hall Guards and Ushers both of which are sponsored and guided by Lieutenant Thompson.

One of Franklin's foremost service organizations is the Usherettes, a group of twenty five girls who help you find a seat in the auditorium. The Usherettes serve at all Assemblies, Commencement and Baccalaureate services, and other programs when needed.

During the spring semester, the girls are exhibiting their new uniforms. Evelyn Dorothy Apel acted as head usherette during the past year. Lieutenant Thompson sponsored the group.

The Ushers are an organized group numbering about fifteen, and are led by Eddie Foerstel as Head Usher. They participate at aud calls, football games and other special activities. Ushers must be passing in all subjects and maintain a merit record of eighty-five or more.

Numbering 150 strong are the Hall Guards who keep the halls clear during class periods, and guard lockers. Hall Guards contribute their study periods to guard duty, must be passing in three solids and must have over eighty credits.

Hall Guard Supervisors direct the activities of the guards during their respective periods. There are eighteen supervisors, one for each period, to supervise in each of the three districts into which the school has been divided to ease the duties of the guards. Supervisors are required to pass all subjects and have over ninety credits.

Carrying all the details of both Hall Guards and Ushers, the office force works each period in the Armory in shifts of two. It is their duty to carry out all office work pertaining to the Ushers and Hall Guards.

Office workers are Marion Bryant, Catherine Colvin, Celia Crane, Bernice Graff, Lucille Jensen, Ethel Jones, Florence Madsen, Beth Marsh, Florence Rosen, Barbara Summers, Yvonne Tetro, Evangeline Wright, and Delores Yorba.

CITIZENSHIP CREDIT BOARD

As you know Franklin is a student governed institution. Just as the student council is the executive facet of school life, the student court forms the judicial phase of student government. The court justices themselves mete out retribution to offenders. Despite this fact the purpose of the tribunal is not to discipline, but to determine the underlying cause for the breach of the law.

Thus the court was conceived not as a punitive force, but rather to discover the motivation behind these infringements of Franklin's code and to remedy these conditions.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Coach Frank Hess's scrappy buff and blue gridgers, 1938 Northern League Champs, finished a very successful season with a record of 6 wins and 1 defeat, the finest record ever turned in by any Franklin grid team since 1922. The Hessmen were presented with the coveted Northern League Championship when it was learned that the Rough Riders from Roosevelt, the only team to defeat the Panthers, were disqualified and stripped of the title for playing two ineligible men.

The Panthers lifted the curtain on the 1938 season by winning an easy 12-6 victory over Glendale Union High, 1937 Southern California C.I.F. champions. Speedy Don Boyer was the star of the game when he skirted left end for 55 yards and a score.

In the other practice game, the varsity gridgers clawed the Eagle Rock Eagles for a 9-0 victory. Fullbacks Mark Bowman and Jack Barnes tore the Eagles line to threads with their powerful line plunging. Leidholt, Sparks, Cookmeyer, Silverstein, Morgan and Vozza also played bang up games for the Panthers.

PANTHERS WIN LEAGUE OPENER

Led by Louis Windham and Joe Margucci, the Panthers surprised everyone by administering a 20-0 drubbing to the Marshall Barristers, last season's league champs. Windham intercepted a Marshall pass and galloped 70 yards for the first score. In the second half, Franklin's ambidextrous passer, Joe Margucci, got hot and rifled passes to Jack Leidholt and Jules Johnson for touchdowns. Cullen, Sparks, Cookmeyer and Booth were outstanding for the winners.

The Panthers continued their undefeated march the following week by winning a thrilling 26-12 victory over the visiting Garfield Bulldogs. The passing combination of Margucci pitching, and Leidholt on the receiving end again took the spotlight. Of the six passes Margucci completed, 4 were completed to the "sticky fingered" Leidholt.

The mighty Panthers next traveled to the famous Rose Bowl in Pasadena, where before some 10,000 wild eyed fans the Ben gridgers scored a 12-0 victory over the Tigers from Lincoln. The game was featured by the great line play of Lazzeretto, Sparks, Silverstein, Vozza and Leidholt. The Hessmen scored in the second period, when "Dead eye" Margucci threw a 20 yard pass to Leidholt in the end zone. Late in the game, Jack Barnes intercepted one of Joe Russo's passes and raced 75 yards down the sidelines for the Ben's other score.

GAME MAKES HISTORY

In the final game of the season, the unbeaten Panthers traveled to Boyle Heights to do battle with the also undefeated Roosevelt Rough Riders. When the dust had cleared away, it was found that the Bens had given the game and league title to the Riders by a 38-20 score. The rest is history.

B FOOTBALL

After beginning the season in fine style with two victories, the Panther lighties, under the leadership of Coach Lee Duke, dropped four consecutive league encounters to finish fifth in Northern League competition.

In their first and only practice game of the season, the Bens took the measure of the Eagle Rock lightweights 7 0. Looking forward to a successful campaign, the gridders traveled to Marshall and returned with a 13-7 victory. However, this proved to be the last taste of victory the Panthers experienced as they lost all four of their remaining tilts with Garfield, Belmont, Lincoln, and Roosevelt, respectively.

Backfield men, Bob Van Cleave, Oliver Jones, and co-captains Dick Clive and Johnny Markland, turned in outstanding performances throughout the season, while Bill Finnicks, Doug Brown, Babe Garcia, and Jim Arthur, stood out like blocks of granite in the forward wall.

SOFTBALL

Under the tutelage of Coach Frank Hess, the two varsity softball squads wound up the season with a combined total of two wins and eight losses.

In the season openers, one of the squads traveled to Marshall where they started off with a bang by setting the Judges back to the tune of 9-1 as Tony Guglielmino hurled one-hit ball. However, the second Ben team suffered an 11-6 trimming at the hands of the Barristers in the home game.

The Panthers then dropped three successive double-headers to Lincoln, Garfield, and Belmont, ringing down the curtain on the season as one of the squads walloped Roosevelt 7 5 behind the air-tight slinging of Guglielmino. A last inning homer broke a 3-3 tie and enabled the Teds to win the second game, 4-3.

Tony Guglielmino proved to be the outstanding twirler, while Don Saltzman and Pat Patterson also turned sterling performances on the mound all season.

APPARATUS

The Franklin musclemen checked in an unsuccessful season this year. Coach Francis McCollom turned out several outstanding men, but the team as a whole was not talented enough to back up the few stars. The record books showed when the season was concluded that the Panther gym team had lost five straight league matches, ending up in the cellar position.

Captained by Lindy Markham, the aggregate lost successive decisions to Roosevelt, Marshall, Belmont, Lincoln and Garfield. Coach McCollom entered seven men in the league finals at Garfield and Everett Makowski was the only Ben representative to garner a place. Makowski went on to the city semi-finals to cop a third place on the long horse.

The outstanding performers were Vernon Johnson on the side horse, high bars and rings, Everett Makowski on the long horse, Bob Dunham on the side horse, Pete Miller on the mats, Raymond Johnson on the clubs, and Lindy Markham on the parallels.

Varsity Basketball

One victory and nine defeats, and a tie for the cellar championship of the Northern League. That represents the woeful tale of the varsity Casabamen during the past season.

In the first round of play the Panther cagers lost four and won one. They were beaten by Marshall, Garfield, Belmont, and Roosevelt, and registered their only victory against the Railsplitters.

The second round of competition proved to be even more disastrous for the local quintet, as they dropped all five of their games. The Barristers took them 29-13, Garfield 36-28, Lincoln 35-29, Belmont 38-26, and lastly the Bens were swamped by Roosevelt 75-18.

Royal Lininger, high scoring center, and George Blatchley, ace floorman, were easily the outstanding men on the team. Bob Gulbransen, Mel Cooper, Bob Cates, and Carson Hubbard also proved that they were capable of playing good ball.

B Basketball

Co captained by Ray Hall and Wally Etherton, the Panther B Cagers climaxed one of the most successful seasons in recent years. With only Hall and Etherton returning from last year's squad, the pre-season outlook was none too bright. However, many fellows up from the C's helped to bolster the team considerably.

Under the able tutorage of Coach Hobart Kelly, the locals triumphed in four of their contests, while they dropped six. In the first round of play the Bens emerged with two victories, having defeated Lincoln and Belmont, while in turn they were beaten by Garfield, Marshall, and Roosevelt. The Rough Rider fray was probably the most thrilling of the lot, ending in a 27-25 decision for the Teds.

In the course of the second round the lighties defeated Garfield and Belmont. Several of the games were decided by the mere margin of one basket.

Forwards Ray Hall, Fred Darling, and Dutch Cates, proved to be outstanding performers, while Center Bud Frank, and Guards Jack McCarter, George Pimentel, Wally Etherton, and Russell Reed displayed some excellent ball handling.

C Basketball

The C basketball team under the able guidance of Rubex Hartley, won three games, and lost seven, to end a somewhat spotty season in fourth place.

The Ben midgets embarked upon their Northern League schedule with two consecutive losses to Marshall and Lincoln respectively. In their next League fray the Panther quintet traveled to Garfield where they chalked up their first League victory over a weak Bulldog five, by the imposing score of 17-11. The highlight of the C schedule was their close win over a highly favored Barrister quintet, which had previously defeated them 14-13.

Outstanding individual performers for the Panthers were co-captains Mike Calias, and Pancho Perez. Others who turned in excellent games for the locals were Al Peale, Cuthbert Love and Gene Gray.

A T E N N I S

Completing a four match schedule with two wins against as many defeats, Coach Lee Duke's varsity tennis squad finished the season by garnering third place in the Northern League standings

The Panthers were the pre-season favorites to cop the coveted crown along with the Belmont racquet men but a 5-2 lacing by the Sentinels in the first match of the season and another 5-2 setback at the hands of the Marshall Barristers knocked the Printers out of the running. The locals defeated Garfield and Lincoln in the other two matches of the season by 4-3 and 5-2 scores

Captain Nolan McQuown and Oliver Jones both played brilliant tennis all season. McQuown took four consecutive matches in the number one singles position while Jones, playing in the number two spot, copped three matches and dropped only one.

Bernard Gates was the third singles man, Ted Karnofsky performed at fourth spot, and Hans Grashoff was the fifth man. Allison Pierce and Dave Skieje took care of the number one doubles assignment while Emery Smith and Kiyoshi Takano teamed up to play second doubles.

B T E N N I S

After dropping four consecutive Northern League tennis meets, the Ben lightweight netters scored their only win of the season, when they swamped a weak Lincoln team by a decisive 6-1 score. By virtue of their lone victory, the Ben netters emerged from the League cellar position to place fifth in the Northern League standings

Jim Longcrier played the number one singles spot for the locals, followed by Roland Shindler, Alden Palmer, Jack Noell, Al Pearle. Cuthbert Love and Bill Wiedman took care of the first doubles while Bob Rockney and Ignancio Vilivalva made up the second doubles.

C . A . A .

"Promote sportsmanship in girls sports," is part of the oath taken by each C A A candidate at the initiation held each semester. The aim of this organization is to carry through all the promises made when the pledge is taken.

Any girls interested in sports are eligible for membership. They may participate at play days, assist at initiations, and attend the annual banquets.

Officers for the winter term were Iona Ziegler, president, Mary Fish, vice-president, Margaret Fisher, secretary, Margie Watkins, treasurer, Maxine Bland and Phil Weber were the cheer leaders.

The officers for the summer semester were Margaret Fisher, president; Marion Murray, secretary, Delores Yorba, treasurer. The yell leaders were Clarinda DeCecco and Marie Kaufman.

A TRACK

Downing the strong Belmont Hilltoppers for their only league victory, Coach John "Tony" Spangler's track and field forces finished the season with an average of one victory in five starts. Although not having such great success in the win and loss column, the Panthers sent 16 men on to the league finals.

Sprinter, hurdler and broad jumper Don Munro, led the local spikemen in scoring with a sensational 55 points or an average of nine points per meet. Captain Louie Windham, sprints, Leon Melie, hurdles, and Jack Kruckiberg, 440, proved to be consistent winners. Other point winners were Alexander Heard, 880, Bill Clark and Jack Morey, pole vault, Bill Luce, hurdles, and Preston Swafford and Kenny Jacques, broad jump.

With most of the point winners back, plus all the B stars that graduate to the varsity, the buff and blue tracksters look like sure title threats next season.

B TRACK

After suffering three straight losses at the beginning of the season, the Ben lightweight track and field forces scored a sensational comeback to emerge victorious over the Belmont and Marshall tracksters respectively. They copped fourth place in the final Northern League standing.

Two new Northern League records and one new school record were set during the past season. Bill Bennett led the assault on the records when he chalked up a new League record in the 1320. He negotiated the distance in the remarkable time of 3:24.0. Tony Cuglielmino, a sophomore, leaped 5 feet 9 1/4 inches to set a new school standard in the high jump. Lloyd Barber set a new League mark in the pole vault when he soared over the bar at 11 feet 7 inches. Other outstanding performers for the locals were Richard Soderburg, Culvin Cardin, Archie Wilson, Harry Barlow, Bob Stillman and Jack MacCarter.

C TRACK

With pole vaulters Mike Cailas and sprinter Tom Ikeda leading the way, the Class C tracksters wound up the season with four losses and one victory. Highlight of the season was Mike Callas' record breaking mark of 11 feet 1 1/2 inches in the pole vault, established in the Belmont meet. Callas also performed in the 120 yard low hurdles, having been defeated once during the regular dual meets. Ikeda, product of the Novice Meet, led the midget sprinters by winning the 100 yard dash in the triangular meet against the sprinters of Belmont and Marshall.

Dick Metcalf and James Simpson proved to be two of the best 660 men in the league.

The midgets registered their lone victory against Belmont by 39-38 margin.

Orlando Martinez, Tom Malone, Tom Estabrook and Dick Ward garnered many valuable digits for the Bens.

FIRST STRING VARSITY

The eleven handsome footballers on the right are the seven blocks of granite and four jackrabbits, or in plain language the men who carried the buff and blue colors to the Northern League football championship.

Leidholt, sensational pass catcher, would make catches that most ends wouldn't even try for. Silverstein, out most of the season with an injured leg, but while in there, was bulk of strength on the left side of line.

Vozza, one of the leading interference runners in the city. Anderson, very accurate passer, good line backer, real team player. Sparks, thought by all who saw him play, to be the finest defensive guard in the city. Also ironman of squad, playing more minutes than any of his teammates. Booth, very fast for big man, always in there trying his best. Lazzeretto, one of the best defensive ends in league, good pass snagger.

Jurick, proxying for injured Bob Cullen, who broke a bone in his foot in the Roosevelt game. "Hootchy" Margucci, known by his many fans as a passer de luxe, was also a pretty fair ball carrier and kicker. Windham, fast on reverses, good pass catcher and dependable defensive man. Barnes, hard line plunger, good open field runner.

ATHLEDELPHIANS

The chief purpose of the Athledelphians is to promote school spirit, stimulate athletic interest, create and maintain a high standard of sportsmanship and honor among the athletes of the school.

Another function of the lettermen's organization is to supervise the wearing of letters, and to authorize the wearing of lettermen sweaters.

Leo Silverstein was president for the fall term. His assistants were Don Boyer, vice president, Jack Walker, secretary; and Phil Meyers, treasurer. For the spring semester Mickey Chance served as president. The other officers of his cabinet were Dick Clive, vice president; Oliver Jones, secretary, and Dick Sparks, treasurer. Mr. Miller is the very capable sponsor of the Panther lettermen organization.

INTRAMURAL

Featuring football, handball, baseball, and tennis tournaments, Intra Mural athletics again attained a high degree of success in the sports life of Franklin during the past year.

Gene Baroni and his "Fighting Wops" started the Intra-Mural program off with a bang by winning the touch football tournament.

Jack Austin, Lindy Markham, and Henry Wheatly finished 1, 2, and 3, in the annual handball tournament sponsored by Coach Lee Duke. By virtue of his victory, Austin won the right to represent Franklin in the All-City contest.

Under the able guidance of athletic manager Frank Vozza, many new prospects for Coach Tony Spangler's cinder squad were uncovered in the annual Novice Track Meet. Foremost among them being Jack Kruckberg, varsity 440 ace, Tom Ikeda, Class C sprinter de luxe, Bert Skonberg, Richard Soderberg, and Tony Gugliemino, Class B high jumpers and Johnny Handshy, sprinter.

Biggest upset of the year occurred when the Junior track men eked out a close victory over the Seniors in the Annual Inter Class cinderfest.

Led by Jess Antista and Jim Wallace the second period softball team won the baseball championship of the gym classes, when it defeated the period four squad in a close 5-4 decision.

The Hi-Hatters sponsored a swimming meet and completed the Intra-Mural sports schedule for the year.

Thank you very much. Always keep to your ideas and what is right as you have been and you will be a best of them. I am sure you will be a great
to care
and we seem to have survived
so far. It
